1. Would the oral defenses or thesis submissions of MA and PhD students affect any patent application?

A: Oral defense of a thesis is regarded as publication. It is suggested that if an oral defense of a thesis is conducted before the patent application, to please ask participants and reviewers of the oral exam to sign the Confidential Consent Form for Participants in Oral Examination of Academic Dissertations (Industry-Academia Collaboration>Industry and Academia Cooperation Related Attachment) ; the e-file or paper copy of the thesis shall be postponed for publication; please ask the library to remove the abstract from publication.
