

Oral test scores submission and departure time

1. Fall semester

Students have oral tests from the beginning of the fall semester (around September) until January 31

The scores should be submitted before January 31

Students should leave school and submit a hard copy of their paper before the last working day prior to the start of classes in the next semester (around mid to late February)

For those who have not yet left the school:
For students who have not completed their program duration, should continue paying school expenses.
For students who have completed their program duration, they will be drop out.

2. Spring semester

Students have oral tests from the beginning of the spring semester (around February) until July 31

The scores should be submitted before July 31

Students should leave school and submit a hard copy of their paper before the last working day prior to the start of classes in the next semester (around mid-September)

For those who have not yet left the school:
For students who have not completed their program duration, should continue paying school expenses.
For students who have completed their program duration, they will be drop out.

3. Winter vacation

Students who have oral tests from February 1 until the day before the start of the spring semester

If scores are submitted and students leave school before the start of classes (about mid to late February), they don't need to pay the registration fees.

The scores should be submitted before July 31

Students should leave school and submit a hard copy of their paper before the last working day prior to the start of classes in the next semester (around mid-September)

For those who have not yet left the school:
For students who have not completed their program duration, should continue paying school expenses.
For students who have completed their program duration, they will be drop out.

4. Summer vacation

Students who have oral tests from August 1 until the day before the start of the fall semester

If scores are submitted and students leave school before the start of classes (about mid September), they don't need to pay for the registration fees.

Scores must be submitted before January 31 of the following year

Students should leave school and submit a hard copy of their paper before the last working day prior to the start of classes in the next semester (around mid to late February)

For those who have not yet left the school:
For students who have not completed their program duration, should continue paying school expenses.
For students who have completed their program duration, they will be drop out.

